PATH System

The PATH System will standardize finance-related approval groups and processes. This system is a database of Financial Roles and Processes intended to eventually be used by University systems (e.g., Perceptive Content) for automated workflow processes. It allows departments to manage the positions assigned to these roles and the related processes. PATH was developed by OneIT Enterprise Applications. Reference the PATH Fact Sheet for additional details.

Search for a Topic of Interest Below

Recommended FAQs

- How do I access a list of campus business offices and business coordinators?
- How do I enter Role Assignments in PATH?
- How do I set up interim and temp assignments in PATH?
- What are the PATH System implementation phases?

Browse More FAQs

- How do I access a list of campus business officers and business coordinators?
- How do I enter Role Assignments in PATH?
- How do I set up interim and temp assignments in PATH?
- What are the PATH System implementation phases?
- What do I do if a position assigned to a role in PATH is currently vacant?
- Why can't I see the Role Assignments in PATH that expected to see?