How do I reset and copy my Google Calendar Secret Address?

Tell Me
If you have 3rd party apps accessing your Google Calendar, you may need to reset your Google Calendar Secret Address and paste it into that app.

1. Open Google Calendar
2. In the left-hand column, hover over the calendar you need to access
3. Click the three dots beside the calendar and select Settings and sharing

!Settings and sharing menu

4. In the left-hand column, click on Integrate Calendar
5. In the Secret address in iCal format section, click the Reset button

!Secret address in iCal format reset button

6. Click the Copy to Clipboard icon to copy the address for use in other applications

!Copy to clipboard icon

Related FAQs

- How do I respond to a Google Calendar meeting invitation when I am using the Outlook client?
- How do I add a Zoom meeting for one event that is part of a Google recurring meeting?
- What do I do if I receive an error while using the Zoom scheduler extension in Google Calendar?
- How do I create an appointment schedule in Google Calendar?
- How do I turn appointment schedules on or off?